

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year
from
Gospel Broadcasting Mission & The Christians' Hour

“... I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all people.”

December, 2011

Dear Christian Broadcasting Friend,

Someone composed a list of people who can be excused from giving to missions:

“Those who believe every man for himself ... Those who believe Christ made a mistake when he said, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel" ... Those who regret missionaries ever came to our ancestors ... Those who believe the gospel will not save anybody ... Those who want no share in the final victory ... Those who believe they are not accountable to anybody for the trust they enjoy ... Those who are prepared to accept the final sentence, ‘Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of these, you did it not to me’” and the list could go on.

While this might represent the views of some people in our world, I'm certain it does not represent your belief about giving. You and I know the truth! The real joy of the Christmas season is giving and a lasting joy of the Christian life is giving, as well.

It is the partnership of Christians like you that enables us to report we have just completed a great year in terms of service performed in sharing God's Word with the world by radio. Working with dedicated broadcasters in a number of countries, we have been involved in teaching ... training ... broadcasting in sixteen languages ... church planting ... and in helping evangelists reach into remote, restricted areas of the world to provide physical help, spiritual guidance and Biblical knowledge.

However, in terms of financial support - to be honest - it has been a very difficult good year. Some worthy projects and ministry opportunities have gone unfunded or unfinished. Please understand, we are not complaining - it's just the way things have been.

So, here at the end of one year and the start of another, we're asking once again for your financial partnership. If you are already one of our regular supporters, please continue - and thank you. If you have not given a gift for a long time, please consider doing so today. Your gift is tax-deductible - but more importantly, it will help meet mission needs and keep us on-track - sharing the joyful news of His birth on radio.

Thank you for your gift today - believe me, it will make a difference!

May God bless you. MERRY CHRISTMAS and HAPPY NEW YEAR.
