Chinese Lisu Christian leader enjoys listening to our broadcasts

Recording studio team on their way to China to encourage radio listeners

Aaron Fish, son of Manasseh & Ruth Fish, on a mission trip to NE India. He not only caught their meal, he also preached the gospel in the local church. Aaron is planning for ministry in Burma, and with his computer skills, helps produce our daily radio broadcast in PaOh. Good job, Aaron!

Workers (r) constructing a new bamboo dorm for female students who attend Taunggyi Bible College in Central Burma. Our long-time partner in radio ministry, Manasseh Fish and his wife Ruth, lead this very important work. He is both President and TBC teacher. Ruth produces our daily PaOh radio broadcast aired each evening from the Far East Broadcasting Company in Manila, Philippines, over their short wave transmitters.

Built with local materials, this girls dorm plus furniture will cost about $1,000

James, a member of the Radio Recording Studio team had the privilege of preaching (as each team member did) for congregations of Chinese-Lisu Christians. This was the first time these Christians had personal visits from mission workers. They also listen to our nightly Lisu-language broadcasts.

Samuel Leme presents a radio to this church elder, one of over 400 radios given out on this visit

Team leader, Ahdi Mark (l) sharing a DVD. They also shared 320 mp3 players, Bibles, CD's and copies of the Jesus film in the local language

Moloshidi Valley in NE India ... from LaVerne Morse (Asia Christian Services)

One of the most remote, distant, restricted areas in all of India is the Moloshidi Valley in Arunachal Pradesh State (circled left). However, 7,000 Lisu Christians live in this remote place! The Lisu Church of Christ at Shidi Village has about 1,000 members. In spite of its isolation from the outside world, Lisu Christians are able to hear half-hour gospel radio broadcasts in their own "mother tongue" every evening from Far East Broadcasting Company transmitters in Manila, Philippines.

These broadcasts were first started by Asia Christian Services ... have always been supported by Gospel Broadcasting Mission ... and are produced in the Gospel Recording Studios in Chiangmai, Thailand. Co-workers Ahdi Mark and his wife Tasanee serve as directors and have a staff of five producing daily programs in several SE Asian languages. We are thankful for our partnership with Gospel Broadcasting Mission.

YOUR financial help is needed now to keep our broadcasts on the air, reaching into remote places with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. YES! I (we) want to help Gospel Broadcasting Mission & The Christians' Hour ministry on radio at home and around the world!
